Allan Descheneau, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Synopsis: Letters from Jesus is an exhilarating and informative journey through the geography, history and spiritual life of the cities and churches Jesus writes to in Revelation 2-3. Well organized, conversationally written and easy to understand for all levels of Christian maturity, this book invites to reader to walk with the letter carrier of the Roman Road and experience the cities as he visits them for the first time. Follow along as Pastor Allan carefully and passionately teaches through each letter, helping the reader to discover Jesus special love for the church and people in each location. Pergamum was under attack as well, but their problem wasn't as much from outside as it was from within. They handled external pressures well but were cracking internally as they began following the habits of their corrupt culture and accepting false teaching. In what ways have Christians today succumbed to the temptation to compromise their...
