With such unlimited supplies of coal throughout the colony, it is expected that gas will soon be in general use, the expense at present, one pound a thousand feet, being little more than tallow candles. BANES. Six are in full operation in Tasmania, with aggregate assets to the value of 1, 800, 000, and liabilities 1, 100, 000. The Banks are all flourishing, if we may judge from the published returns. I am no financier, but I lay the following before you: -- The Commercial Bank shares are 100 each, all paid up; the last dividend declared was at the rate of ten per cent. , and the shares fetch in the market 153. The Bank of Van Diemens Land shares are 50 each, all paid up, the last dividend was ten per cent. , and the selling price 78. The Union Bank shares are 25 each, all paid up; the last dividend was twenty per cent. , and the selling price was, in the colony 62. 10s. and in England 53. 10s. The Australasian Bank shares are 40 each, all paid up, the last dividend was twenty per cent. , with a bonus, and the selling price was 88. The Savings Bank in Hobart Town, is a flourishing establishment, in which upwards of 120, 000 are deposited. The Bank allows interest to depositors at the rate of 4 per cent. , declared half-yearly,...
